

VIRTUAL LEARNING FOR EVERYONE.

UNIVERSITY OF
SAINT JOSEPH
CONNECTICUT

connecting everyone

2020

2020 MEDIA | 20MEDIA20.COM

Tuesday, March 23, 7-8pm CAREERS IN CRIMINAL JUSTICE

The University of Saint Joseph invites you to learn more about the exciting and expanding field of Criminal Justice. Find out what it means to be a member of this in demand and growing field along with the broad range of professional opportunities it offers.

GUESTS INCLUDE:

Welcome by Dr. Rhona C. Free, President, University of Saint Joseph

Brian Enns, Assistant Professor, Criminal Justice, University of Saint Joseph

Kendra Herrick, Parole Supervisor, Department of Corrections,
Division of Parole and Community Services

Emory Hightower, Supervisory Inspector, Office of the Hartford State's Attorney,
State of Connecticut.

Hosted by Brian Foley, Department of Emergency Services & Public Protection,
State of Connecticut

FREE TO THE PUBLIC

Spring topic will focus on TEACHING! Watch for details online.

Registration is free, but space is limited. Contact hillary@20media20.com